1. Policy Statement

1.1 Grande Prairie Regional College (GPRC) values and appreciates dedicated service by its employees, the excellent work they perform, and the positive results they achieve. GPRC is committed to recognizing their significant contributions to the College.

2. Background

2.1 GPRC employees comprise a valuable asset and, as such, it is important that effective and equitable processes are in place to recognize their valuable contributions to GPRC's success.

3. Policy Objective

3.1 The objective of this Policy is to provide a consistent protocol for recognizing the valuable contributions and achievements of employees at GPRC.

4. Scope

4.1 This Policy applies to all GPRC employees.

5. Definitions

5.1 “Collective Agreements” refer to the contracts GPRC has entered into with the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees (AUPE), Employees' Association (EA), or Academic Staff Association (ASA) that outline the terms and conditions of employment for specific groups of employees.

6. Guiding Principles - Long Service Awards

6.1 GPRC formally recognizes specific “milestones” of employment services that are characterized by an on-going commitment between GPRC and the employee.

6.2 The Director, Human Resources or designate will coordinate the administration of the recognition of employment service program, including assessment of employee eligibility and awards.

6.3 Employment service is formally recognized in five-year increments (the fifth, tenth, fifteenth, twentieth, twenty-fifth, thirtieth years of service, and applicable five years thereafter).

6.4 Eligibility is calculated annually to August 31.

- 6.5 Service will not be prorated and all service will be credited equally for time worked. For example, a full year of service will be credited as one year for both part-time and full-time employees.
- 6.6 Prior service, as stipulated in Collective Agreements, will be counted towards employment service. For the Administration Group, prior service will be considered provided there has not been a break greater than one year.
- 6.7 Gift awards lost by employees can be replaced at the employee's expense through Human Resources.

7. Guiding Principles - Retirement Recognition

- 7.1 Upon retirement, GPRC will provide departing employees with a retirement gift.
- 7.2 The Director, Human Resources will approve the award and the value of the gift.

8. Guiding Principles - Special Recognition Award

- 8.1 GPRC may recognize an employee(s) through a special recognition award.

9. Guiding Principles - Award Presentations

- 9.1 Long Service Awards will be presented at the Employee Recognition Ceremony to be held each year. Retiring employees will also be recognized at this ceremony.

10. Tax Implications for Awards

- 10.1 It is Grande Prairie Regional College's (GPRC) legal obligation to comply with the Income Tax Act. When GPRC provides an award to an employee, the value of the benefit may have to be included in the employee's income. The Income Tax Act defines whether or not the award is taxable and the employer is responsible for determining whether the benefits they offer are taxable to their employees. The employer is responsible for adding the value of any taxable award to reportable income, and, withholding, remitting and reporting the required statutory deductions to Canada Revenue Agency (CRA).
- 10.2 Final determination of the tax implications of a benefit amount is subject to acceptance by the CRA. Should an employee wish to dispute the taxability of an award, they may directly apply and obtain a ruling from the CRA. GPRC will abide by any CRA rulings.
