1. Policy Statement

- 1.1. Employee Records are kept in the strictest confidence, and contain the information and documents on the individual employment relationship with Grande Prairie Regional College (“GPRC”). This policy outlines the procedure for keeping and accessing Employee Files.

2. Background

- 2.1. To ensure Employee Records are confidential, and are held and maintained in a manner that respects the privacy of employee information and meets the requirements of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (“FOIP”).

3. Policy Objective

- 3.1. The Human Resources Department located on Grande Prairie and Fairview Campuses will maintain an Employee File. These files are property of GPRC and contain relevant information with respect to each employee.
- 3.2. The purpose of Employee Records is to maintain current employee data and information for business and employment related purposes, or where authorized or required by law.
- 3.3. To ensure that access to employee information is adhered to, any requests related to the Employee File must be directed to the Human Resources Department.

4. Scope

- 4.1. This policy applies to all current and former employees (as required by the applicable legislations).

5. Definitions

- 5.1. “Employee File” is a collection of records and facts about the employee and related employment status changes. It also contains a record of events (i.e. including promotions, transfers, absenteeism, performance appraisals and letters of discipline).
- 5.2. “Employee Record” refers to any form, report, original, microfilmed or electronic record, notes or documentation relating to or impacting the selection, status, salary, performance, benefits, disciplinary action, training, etc. of an employee, prospectively employed or separated person.

6. Guiding Principles

6.1. Internal Request to access Employee Files

6.1.1. Access to Employee Files is restricted to authorized personnel where it is necessary for the performance of their duties, including but not limited to Human Resources, Payroll, Legal advisors, internal auditors, and the employee's supervisor, the applicable Dean/Director, the applicable Vice-President and the President. All information placed in the Employee Files is confidential in nature and it will only be divulged to individuals who have been authorized to receive such information. The right of every staff member to privacy shall be recognized and protected, consistent with GPRC policy guidelines, applicable legislation and collective agreement provisions.

6.1.2. Employee's files may be viewed under the following conditions:

6.1.2.1. Employee

Upon employee's written request with at least 24 hours advance notice. Employees are allowed access to their own Employee File under the guidance and supervision of Human Resources staff.

6.1.2.2. Supervisor, Dean/Director, Vice-President, President
