Mid-term number based upon assignments completed. To date. Mid-term is an indicator grade only for the student's reference on his/her performance in the course. The weight between In Class Process and Project Assignments will reflect the portion of the class time spent in those areas of study.

In Class Process assignments reflects the activity in class that day and will be very short. Hence they will be due at the end of the specific class for marking. (There will be no extensions for any reason) Failure to finish projects on time for class critiques will affect student's final evaluation. Students will be expected to invest a minimum of four hours a week in the class.

EXAMINATIONS:

No examines, assignment and process grading is on going and as per assignment due dates. Portfolios may be required mid and end term.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Class Expectations, students will:

- Bring the required supplies for every class. If you have missed a previous class it is your responsibility to ask your fellow students or the instructor before the start of class to insure that you have the appropriate supplies and materials ready.
- Be punctual! If you arrive late you will have to ask your classmates for the information. You are fully responsible for the material covered in class, projects and due dates. I will not be delivering one to one classes or lectures.
- Be prepared to take notes and save class handouts. Handouts will not be given out twice.
- Take home assignments are due promptly at the start of due class. If you cannot attend class have a classmate hand it to me personally in class and identify the situation.
- As this is a shared studio space and due to health and safety reasons it is expected that you will put your materials, drawings, easels and drawing boards away at the end of class. Any materials left outside of storage may not be there when you return.
- Respect and take pride and care of your work. You will need examples for your portfolios to apply to other institutions.
Expect to have a portfolio of works when applying for transfer
- Late assignments will lose 10% grade for each day late. After 10 days you will receive a zero grade. It is your responsibility to get your work to me. I will not be asking you for late work! Late work must be handed to in person person
- No use of iPods or MP3 players in the studio/classroom, all cell phones must be turned off, no texting.
- More than 20% absenteeism may constitute a failure except for medical or extenuating circumstances in which case a doctor's letter may be required. After 20% absenteeism you may be required to withdraw from the course.
- If you are absent to due health reasons a doctor's slip is required.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Please refer to pages 49-50 of the College calendar regarding plagiarism, cheating and the resultant penalties. These are serious issues and will be dealt with severely.

COURSE SCHEDULE/TENTATIVE TIMELINE:

AR1360 will cover the basic elements of design, including the following: form, line, shape, value, texture, composition and space. The principles of organization including rhythm, balance, scale/proportion and movement will also be covered. These principles will be investigated and applied to both two and three-dimensional work. Students will be introduced to seeing and working from observation, being able to identify and to work on correcting problems in a piece of work. The elements studied in this course are intended to provide a broad foundation of experience and knowledge for students to apply in future visual courses.

The instructor directs course projects and/or assignments. Following an assignment's deadline, no further class time can be devoted, although students are encouraged to improve their work based on insights and comments expressed during class discussions and critiques. Students are expected to work outside of class time approximately 4 -6 hours per week. Overdue portfolios/ assignments are penalized 10% per day.
