EVALUATIONS:

No examines, assignment and process grading is on going and as per assignment due dates. Portfolios may be required mid and end term.

Mid-term number based upon assignments completed to date. Mid-term is an indicator grade only for the student's reference on his/her performance in the course. The weight between In Class Process and Project Assignments will reflect the portion of the class time spent in those areas of study.

In Class Process assignments reflects the activity in class that day and they will be short. Hence they will be due at the end of the specific class for marking. (There will be no extensions for any reason) Failure to finish projects on time for class critiques will affect student's final evaluation. Students will be expected to invest a minimum of four hours a week in the class.

You have two Get Out of Jail Cards for this course. See guideline sheet for their use.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Bring the required supplies for every class. If you have missed a previous class it is your responsibility to ask your fellow students or the instructor before the start of class to insure that you have the appropriate supplies and materials ready.

- Be punctual! If you arrive late you will have to ask your classmates for the information. You are fully responsible for the material covered in class, projects and due dates. I will not be delivering one to one classes or lectures.

- Sign the Attendance Sheet immediately as you come into the classroom.

- If you are late for class, returning from break or departing from class early, you must also log in the time.

- Be prepared to take notes and save class handouts. Handouts will not be given out twice.

- Take home assignments are due promptly at the start of due class. If you cannot attend class have a classmate hand it to me personally in class and identify the situation.

- Returned Process and Assignments Works will only be handed back once; if you are absent they will be placed in the return drawer for your class. After which I will no longer be responsible for their safekeeping.

- Work must be handed in the designated portfolio as per course.

- As this is a shared studio space and due to health and safety reasons it is expected that you will put your materials, drawings, easels and drawing boards away at the end of class. Any materials left outside of storage may not be there when you return.

- Respect and take pride and care of your work. You will need examples for your portfolios to apply to other institutions.

Expect to have a portfolio of works when applying for transfer

- Late assignments will lose 10% grade for each day late. (includes week ends) After 10 days you will receive a zero grade. *It is your responsibility to get your work to me. I will not be asking you for late work!

- Late work must be handed to in person. Or placed on the table in the foyer of Studio A, Email me if you placed your work on the foyer table.

- DO NOT WAIT UNTILL NEXT CLASS TO HAND IN LATE WORK — IT IS ALREADY LATE!

- If you are absent for an extended time period to due health reasons, a doctor's slip is required. At which time alternative assignment due dates can be set up

- No use of iPods or MP3 players in the studio/classroom, all cell phones must be turned off, no texting.

COURSE SCHEDULE/TENTATIVE TIMELINE:

AR 1370 will broaden the students understanding of the basic elements of design: form, line, shape, value, texture, colour, space and the principles of organization: rhythm, balance, scale/proportion, and movement with an emphasis on exploration and production of concepts and visual images. The student will continue to explore seeing/identifying, imagining and problem solving with emphasis on an individual and collective creative approaches. There will be illustrated lectures and/or video to convey specific concepts. Demonstrations of techniques and materials will be given to further the exploration capabilities of the student thus contributing to an understanding of the relationship between art and other disciplines. The course will thoroughly study colour theory and further examine both two and three-dimensional design.

The instructor directs course projects or assignments. Following an assignment's deadline, no further class time can be devoted, although students are encouraged to improve their work based on insights and comments expressed during class discussions and critiques. Students are expected to work outside of class time approximately 4 hours per week. Overdue portfolios/assignments are penalized 10% per day.
