CLASS POLICIES:

It is the right of the student and of the instructor to a favorable learning/teaching environment. It is the responsibility of the student and the instructor to engage in appropriate adult behaviors that positively support learning. This includes, but is not limited to, treating others with dignity and respect.

The student must be familiar with the E.C.D. student handbook and student rights and responsibilities found in the College calendar.

- Regular attendance and active class participation help you understand the content and be a successful student. Absence from 20% of the class hours will result in a grade of 0 for attendance/participation.
- Assignments are due in-class or before 4:30 on the assignment due date. Late assignments will be deducted an initial 5% and 1% per day, including weekends. Assignments will receive a grade of 0% after 10 days late.
- All work should be typewritten (or neatly handwritten in dark ink) and double-spaced. Points will be deducted or the work may be required to be rewritten when there are significant spelling or grammatical errors. Refer to the College calendar and the E.C.D. Student Handbook for assignment submission guidelines.
- Projects with other students require your active involvement and contribution. Group work will include peer and self-evaluations as well as an assigned grade for the project.
- Graded assignments will normally be returned within two weeks.
- The last day to withdraw from this course with full refund of tuition is _____. The last day to withdraw from this course with permission (W is assigned by the Registrar's office) is _____.
- Changes to this course outline will be discussed with you in class.
