CS 3010
User Interfaces

Prerequisites: CS 2010

Instructor: David Gregg
                   E309
                   539 2976
                   gregg@gprc.ab.ca

Text: Class notes and handouts.

Evaluation: Assignments, Projects, Quizzes   40%
                   Midterm Exam   25%
                   Final Exam   35%

Course Description:

This course is an advanced course in user interface design and programming for modern user interfaces.   Topics include: human computer interaction (HCI); human performance models; user-interface architectures; interactive applications; user-interface software tools; architectural design patterns; usability guidelines.

Course Format:

This course is 3 lecture hours and 2 lab hours per week.