

INTRODUCTION to THEATRE ART
DRAMA 1010

W. 98

Instructor: Roxanne Dicke

Office: L112

Office Ph. #: 539-2013

OBJECTIVES:

- 1) To briefly survey the history of theatre from Greeks to present
- 2) To develop an appreciation of the aesthetics of theatre.
- 3) To enhance the student's research abilities.
- 4) To develop an understanding of the various components of theatre: directing, acting, technical, design, etc.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Each student will present a seminar on a chosen historical topic. You must submit a written component with your presentation (2-3 pages in length). You must include a works cited.
- Each student will submit a research paper 4-5 pages in length (i.e., 1000-1250 words).
- Midterm exam and the final exam

COURSE BREAKDOWN:

* In class quizzes, discussions, participation:	15%
* Seminar:	15%
* Research Paper:	20%
* Midterm:	20%
* Final Exam:	30%

⇨ PLEASE NOTE: Plagiarism can result in expulsion from the course.

TEXT: The Art of Theatre by Dennis J. Sporre