COURSE OUTLINE – Winter 2023

MU1021 (A3): Popular Music in the Twentieth Century – 3 (3-0-0) 45 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: No prerequisites, no musical knowledge or skill required.

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

- MYCLASS: You will need to visit our MYCLASS page at <https://myclass.gprc.ab.ca> where you will be able to access a variety of necessary resources.
- Required readings are available on MYCLASS; these will include a mix of online documents and materials from the NWP Polytechnic Learning Commons.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Lecture. Note: NWP reserves the right to change the course delivery.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

MU1021 is an introduction to a number of North American popular music genres and the history behind their developments. This course focuses on popular music from the late nineteenth century to the present day, with an emphasis on the evolution of the various musical styles and the placement of these styles in their social contexts. Both assigned readings and critical listening are important aspects of the course, and exams and quizzes will reflect material from readings and recordings. In addition to the required text, additional readings will be assigned. When you have completed this course, you should have a good perspective of the history and evolution of popular music in North America over the past century.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to explain ways in which popular music has developed and discuss the people and forces that drove those developments. Additionally, students will be able to aurally identify the aesthetic and stylistic characteristics of many genres of popular music.

TRANSFERABILITY:

Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at the Alberta Transfer Guide main page <http://www.transferalberta.ca>.
