INSTRUCTOR: Tina Alexander-Luna PHONE: (780) 539-2812
OFFICE: L-118 EMAIL: talexanderluna@gprc.ab.ca
OFFICE HOURS: As posted on my office door and by appointment

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: Students will gain experience performing choral literature from a variety of periods and genres. This is a two-term course offered over fall/winter terms. It is identifiable in the Schedule of Courses (Timetable) with a Part A and a Part B. Students must register in both the Part A and the Part B of all types of sections offered (sections, labs, seminars, etc.) for this course.

PREREQUISITE/COREQUISITE: Consent of the Department based on audition.

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Appropriate attire for concerts will be required. Students will sign out a copy of all music being performed for that term, and are expected to keep it in good condition, writing only on it with pencil (charges will apply for any lost or ruined music). Students will aid in sorting the music after each term concert. Please bring a pencil(s), eraser, water, and music to all scheduled classes.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Choral Rehearsals and sectionals (Lab)

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course will explore the development of singing technique and repertoire learning through choral repertoire and performance. Students will perform repertoire ranging different time periods (Baroque, Classical, Romantic and Contemporary), as well as some popular music may be explored. This is a full year course, which will include several concert performance opportunities, as well as the possible opportunity for solos as needed in repertoire selected. Choral Ensemble I is part of the GPRC Concert Choir, which includes community members.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon completing this course, students will:

- Development of good vocal and choral singing technique including posture, breath control, and tone
- Development of choral blend
- Develop abilities as a sight-reader, and ear development including pitch accuracy and independence
- Gain experience singing high quality choral repertoire and understanding of styles of choral music

- Develop the ability to work with others towards achieving excellence in choral-ensemble performance
