REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

- Rand Dyck. Canadian Politics: Critical Approaches, 6th edition. Scarborough: Thomson Nelson, 2010.
- Internet & database readings as listed in the syllabus appendix.
- Readings assigned by instructor in class.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: This course examines the workings of the four branches of government at the national level, as well as Canadian federalism and the Constitution. The course also explores efforts to change institutional arrangements to make them more democratic and more responsive to Western Canadians, people in Quebec and aboriginal peoples.

CREDIT/CONTACT HOURS: 3 credits (3-0-0)/45 hours

DELIVERY MODE(S): Lecture

OBJECTIVES: At the end of this course you should be able to assess how the Canadian political system works (and fails to work), and debate how it might be improved. You should also be able to discuss some of Canada's most significant political issues, such as the power of our executive branch, party discipline, Senate reform, and judicial activism.

This course and PO2210 (The Canadian Political Environment) provide a full year introduction to the study of Canadian Politics. The two courses together provide preparation for further studies in Canadian politics at the postsecondary level and serve as a prerequisite. The two courses provide preparation for further studies in Canadian politics at the post-secondary level.

TRANSFERABILITY: This course has university transferability to Athabasca University, Canadian University College, Grant MacEwan University, King's University College, University of Alberta, University of Calgary, and the University of Lethbridge. For complete information, consult the Alberta Transfer Guide (www.transferralberta.ca).

* Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability

EVALUATIONS:

- Debate..... 20%
- Article Review..... 10% (due Fri., Jan. 25)
- Bibliography & Paper Outline..... 10% (due Fri., Feb. 15)
- Term Paper..... 30% (due Mon., Mar. 25)
- Final Exam..... 30%

Debate: You will be presenting on one of 6 debate topics, taking either the positive or negative side of the argument. You will be responsible for presenting your position, defending it through relevant arguments, and guiding class discussion on the topic. I will supply you with a handout in class which will give greater details on this assignment.

Term Paper: The Article Review and the Annotated Bibliography and Outline are assignments which will assist you in completing your final paper. You will receive a handout in class detailing the expectations for these assignments. Your final paper will be a 10 - 12 page persuasive essay on a topic within the broad category of Canadian politics. I will also supply you with a handout in class which will outline in greater detail what I expect from this paper.

Exam: The final exam will consist of short and long answer questions, as well as some multiple choice or matching questions. The exam will be cumulative.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Full participation in class will require demonstration that you have completed the assigned readings, as well as an active role in group work and class discussions.

Punctual submission of assignments:

- An electronic copy is due by midnight on the due date. It should be submitted via Moodle, and should be formatted as a PDF. If you do not know how to save a document as a PDF, please contact me.
- Please title your paper as follows: LASTNAMEFirstname-Assignment-PO2220S2012. (Ex. Jane Smith's paper should be saved as SMITHJane-TermPaper-PO2220S2012.)
- Late assignments will be docked 3% (i.e. an A becomes an A-) for each day they are late. If extenuating circumstances necessitate an extension on an assignment, you are required to speak with me AHEAD OF TIME, and appropriate paperwork (i.e. a medical note) may be required. Also, please note that you are required to write the final exam on the date scheduled by the College. You should take this into account when making any travel plans.

Classroom Conduct:

GPRC has committed to promote an environment free of harassment or discrimination where respect will be given to ethnic, cultural, religious, and lifestyle diversity, and expects individuals will conduct themselves with respect for one another. This means your behavior should exhibit respect for yourselves, each other, the instructor, and the course material. As such:

- Students are expected to arrive to class on time and prepared.
- Laptops and cellphones are permitted in class, with a few caveats.

- Cellphones should be on silent or vibrate mode, and I expect you wait to check calls or messages until after class. If an emergency requires otherwise, I expect you to advise me at the beginning of class.
- Laptops are to be used for class work ONLY. Students carrying out other activities will be asked to leave their laptops at home.
- Working on assignments for other courses is not permitted. Students doing so will be asked to leave the class.
- I encourage an atmosphere of positive and constructive debate. Expressing criticism or annoyance with a view expressed by another person, either through a comment, audible noise, facial expression or body language, is not acceptable, unless you are prepared to debate your position openly & respectfully in class.
- Regular attendance. If you know you are going to be absent from class, I expect you to contact me prior to class with a reason. Students who miss more than 1/3 of classes (9 or more) may be denied the opportunity to write the final exam, as stated in GPRC's Examination Policy (www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/).

For information on key dates and other important matters, please refer to the GPRC Calendar, available www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Plagiarism and/or cheating can result in serious consequences (i.e. a grade of zero on an assignment, loss of credit with a notation on the transcript (notation reads: A Grade of F assigned for academic dishonesty) and/or suspension or expulsion from the College). If I suspect plagiarism on assignments, I reserve the right to submit these to an online plagiarism detection service, as specified in Section 1.4 of the GPRC Policy on Student Misconduct: Academic and Non-academic (http://www.gprc.ab.ca/downloads/documents/Student_Misconduct.pdf).

It is your responsibility to ensure that you fully understand what constitutes plagiarism and/or cheating. If you have any question as to what these acts involve, please refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Admission Guide at <http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/> or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Academic and Non-academic at www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/.
