GENERAL MODEL OF SOCIETY

“The Social System”

Six Ways To Make This Course More Valuable:

- 1. Participate, to engage your learning
- 2. Question, to enhance your learning
- 3. Read, to expand your learning
- 4. Reflect, to measure your learning
- 5. Apply, to transfer your learning
- 6. Innovate, to adapt your learning

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

(1) Exams consist of multiple choice questions -- based on all lecture and text materials. (2) Details on the written assignments will be discussed early in the semester and deadline dates will be announced when the assignments are given. For a heads-up, the assignments include: a ‘fake’ live interview with one of the founders of sociology, and a sociological analysis of a feature film. For these assignments, you have the option of working with a partner, so you will share the marks. (3) What the

'News-You-Can-Use' presentations entail will be discussed in detail as classes get underway. For these presentations you will work with a class partner and share the marks. Other details and due dates will be announced both in class and on Moodle.

PLEASE NOTE:

A missed exam unfortunately cannot be accommodated - unless the situation is an unexpected personal or family emergency. No make-up exams unless it's an emergency; documentation is then required.

Plagiarism detection software may be used in this course, and students may be required, individually or collectively, to submit key assignments/components in electronic form.

It is your responsibility to ensure that all your work is at a level appropriate to your year in college/university studies. Always spell- and grammar-check your work; always keep a hard copy or disk copy of your work as back-up. There is writing help on campus, and if in doubt you are always welcome to ask me, your instructor, for clarification. Poor spelling, grammar and organization interferes with the clear communication of ideas and you will lose marks if your over-all communication is ineffective.

Attendance at lectures is strongly encouraged; the same applies to your participation in class discussions. Be an active participant in your education!

Late assignments or no-shows (on any applicable assignment/course component) will result in an automatic loss of 5 marks (of the value of the work) PER DAY, up to and including the day of a late submission (example: if an assignment is worth 20%, one late day makes it worth 15%, etc.), unless immediate or prior arrangements, based on exceptional circumstances, have been made. Documented personal or family emergencies, of course, will be accommodated.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the section on Plagiarism and Cheating in the College policy titled Student Misconduct: Academic and Non-Academic at <https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/fetch.php?ID=68>).

Instructors reserve the right to use electronic plagiarism detection services on written assignments. Instructors also reserve the right to ban the use of any form of electronics (cell phones, Blackberries, iPods, tablets, scanning pens, electronic dictionaries, etc.) during class and during exams.
